Terms and Conditions of Sale

By participating in this sale, you (hereafter referred to as the "Bidder") are entering into a binding contract with Workman's Books ("Seller") and agree to the following Terms and Conditions:

1. Each lot will be sold to the highest Bidder. Bids may only be submitted live on the Internet until each lot is closed during the timed session. The Seller cannot be responsible for errors in bidding or the loss or delay of any bids that do not get placed by the closing date and time, or for any technical glitches that prevent internet bids from being executed. All bidders must be registered before their bids will be entered. All bids are in U.S. dollars.
2. Winning bids will be reduced automatically by the iCollector platform to the next increment above the second-highest bid. In the case of tie bids, the earliest bidder will win the lot. Bidders are advised to provide allowable percentage increases to avoid losing lots due to a tie.
3. A winning bid is a contract between the winning Bidder (hereafter referred to as the "Buyer") and the Consignor. The Buyer, even if acting as an agent for someone else, agrees to purchase the lot(s) he has won and to pay the Buyer's Premium and any shipping costs, sales tax, bank-wire fees, customs duties, or other surcharges involved in delivering the lot(s) to the Buyer. Certain lots (particularly large bulk lots) may require special packaging and handling, for which a surcharge will be levied (also note shipping calculations will delay invoicing). In some special cases delivery may be arranged directly between the Consignor and the Buyer, at the buyer's cost. At no time shall the Buyer have any legal recourse against the Consignor for any reason. Buyers will be notified as soon as possible after the sale with an invoice reflecting the total amount due and shall remit payment within two weeks of notification or within one month of the date of the first session of the sale close, whichever is sooner. Buyers who do not receive notification for whatever reason are NOT released from their obligation to pay on time. If payment has not been received within these terms, the Seller reserves the right to sell the lot(s) to any under-bidders for their lower bid amounts. Title to each lot does not pass until the item has been paid in full. Any late payments (one month past invoice date) will be assessed an accrued interest charge of 2% per month.
4. Lot pickup will be available after the sale (not during). Any lots not picked up in person (unless other arrangements are made) will be sent to Buyer via U.S. Mail when the invoice has been paid in full. All domestic shipments will carry full insurance, but foreign shipments are made at the Buyer's risk (insurance available in some cases). Workman's Books is responsible for loss or damage to lots only up until they are received at the address to which they are sent; any transshipment from there is the buyer's responsibility alone. Any special instructions for shipping, delivery or payment must be in writing (letter, email or text) and will be effective only upon confirmation by us (verbal requests may not be honored). Generally, lots will be shipped in the order in which they are paid.
5. A Buyer's Premium of 20% will be added to the winning bid for the total purchase price before any applicable taxes, fees or surcharges. Any payments by credit/debit card will incur a 3% surcharge on the total. Any payments by PayPal will incur a 4% surcharge on the total. There will be a $3.00 charge per lot for processing.
6. Acceptable forms of payment are cash, check, money order, wire transfer, direct deposit, PayPal, Visa/MC, American Express and Discover. All payments by check or money order should be made payable to Alan Workman. Payments by PayPal (to aworkmanemail@gmail.com) are limited to $2,500 per auction per buyer. All payments shall be in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank. Please contact us for instructions for wire-transfer payments, for which bank charges may be necessarily added to the amount to be paid, generally depending on the country from which the wire originates.
7. Registration of all bidders for the sale will constitute approval only when the bidder provides an acceptable credit card number with registration. Any bidders with an overdue balance with Workman's Books must complete payment of their previous balance before their bids will be accepted.
- 8) Bidders may only submit bids by bidding online directly on iCollector.
9. All lots are unreserved. The estimates of value are intended solely as a guide. Starting prices for this sale are at approximately one-half to two-thirds of estimate, though this may vary. All estimates are given in U.S. dollars.
10. As an active dealer, Workman's Books is able to estimate a reasonably low wholesale level for each lot and reserves the right to reject any bids below this level (generally at least 50% of estimate). Furthermore, we reserve the right to reject any bids that we have reason to believe are not submitted in good faith. Starting bids are provided on iCollector when the auction is published, and bids below those starting bids cannot be entered. Prices realized do not necessarily reflect accurate market values so much as what the high bidder is willing to pay based on his own needs.
11. All items are guaranteed as described. This is NOT an approval sale, and therefore returns will NOT be accepted UNLESS there was an error in the listing. Any disputes, including proposed returns, must be brought to our attention no later than 2 days after receipt of the lot(s) by the Buyer and BEFORE return shipment to us, with any applicable refunds to be made immediately upon receipt of the returned item(s) by us. All returns must be received by us in unaltered condition and with their original dust jackets or covers no later than one month after the date of the first auction session (note that late remittance, therefore, can negate return privileges). Any refunds for returns paid for by credit card will be subject to a 3% return fee. In the event of loss or damage, Workman's Book's liability shall be limited to the hammer price plus buyer's fee only. Note that any group-lots returned due to error in listing must be returned in entirety.

12. In case of loss or theft the guaranty is limited to either the reserve price (if unsold) or the hammer price plus buyer's fee (if sold). Any extra expenses incurred by the winning bidder or consignor in order to bid, inspect, consign or pick up the lots are not covered and are the sole responsibility of the winning bidder/consignor. Any potential or speculative value is not guaranteed.

13. Lots may be inspected before the auction at my location in Orlando by appointment. High-quality photos of all lots are viewable on iCollector 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. All photographs are of the actual lots being sold but may not be actual size or to scale. The color and brightness of online photos may vary according to your monitor and video-card specifications.

14. If a buyer does not supply a Florida resale certificate, then Florida sales tax will apply as follows: If picked up in person, 6.5% will be added to the total (hammer plus buyer's fee). The same applies to lots shipped to Florida addresses, but the rate (6% to 7.5%) will be according to county of delivery. There is no Florida sales tax on any lots shipped out of state.

15. All bidders and consignors acknowledge and agree that the Seller (Workman's Books) does NOT guarantee that auctions will be unimpaired, uninterrupted or error-free and accordingly shall not be liable for such eventualities. Any errors will be rectified on iCollector as they come to our attention, and those corrected listings shall be deemed the binding descriptions at the time of the sale. The Seller in its sole and absolute discretion may accept or decline any bid, remove bids and reopen bidding, withdraw lots, or change lot sequence or bidding increments at any time, even after the winning bid and winning bidder have been announced. Any bidding disputes shall be adjudicated by the Seller, whose decision shall be deemed binding and final.

16. All Bidders must meet Seller's qualifications to bid. Any Bidder who is not a client in good standing of the Seller may be disqualified at Seller's sole option and will not be awarded lots. Such determination may be made by Seller in its sole and unlimited discretion, at any time prior to, during, or even after the close of the Sale. Seller reserves the right to exclude any person or company from the Sale. Workman's Books reserves the right to reject any bids suspected not to be submitted in good faith. If an entity places a bid, then the person executing the bid on behalf of the entity agrees to personally guarantee payment for any successful bid.

The original edition of this notable work, with superior plates. This book analyzes coins from the Lampsakos mint. The coins from this period and from this mint are Greek staters.- Period I - End of the Sixth and Beginning of Fifth Centuries B.C. Thirteen coins in this period are described.- Group 1 - Reverse with incuse square divided into four equally sunk compartments. Two different obverse designs are described (pointed amphora and vine wreath).- Group 2 - Reverse with incuse square consisting of alternating sunk and raised compartments.- Period II - ca 450 B.C. Forepart of a winged horse on obverse - reverse with incuse square divided by two raised lines into four compartments, two are diagonally opposed as less deeply sunk than the other two.- Addenda Each coin has a detailed description in the text. There are 2 black and white coin plates and 34 pages of text. There are coin photos throughout the text too. This book comes with the original card covers which are chipping at the edges, but the pages of the book are good condition.

17 Balog, Paul. UMAYYAD, 'ABBASID AND TULUND. GLASS WEIGHTS AND VESSEL STAMPS. The American Numismatic Society, New York. 1976. 4to. (8), 322 pages. Original red cloth, gilt. Numismatic Studies No. 13. 55 fine coin plates. Fine. Subject(s): Ancient Coinage. $25-$35

This book is an analysis of glass weights and vessel stamps of Umayyad, 'Abbasid and Tulund. The collection contains more than 270 weights and stamps of the Umayyad period, nearly 500 'Abbasid pieces with the names of caliphs, viceroys, governors and other officials known or unknown, 11 Tulund weights and measure stamps and, finally, about 130 anonymous weights and stamps, mostly of the 'Abbasid period. The importance of the present collection will be appreciated even more since only some 650 Umayyad glass pieces have been hitherto published and the total number of 'Abbasid and anonymous weights and stamps is less than 1400. Thus, the present catalogue contributes another 40 percent to the corpus of known Umayyad glass and nearly 50 percent to that of the 'Abbasid and anonymous weights and measure stamps. The eight issues of the Tulunds in our catalogue are all unpublished. Important.

26 Bermúdez L., ARQ. Humberto. REGISTRO DE LAS FICHAS DE VENEZUELA. ARQ. Humberto Bermúdez L. 2003. 12mo. (1), 16, (1) pages. Original plastic covers, spiral bound. Tables. Spanish text. Fine. Subject(s): Venezuelan Tokens. $20-$25

This Registry is the result of the first phase in the preparation of the Venezuelan Token Catalog, which is expected to publish at the end of 2004. It consists of the compilation, ordering by issuers and values, and coding of the tokens reviewed or mentioned in the following documents: Fonrobert (1878) and Ulex (1908) auctions; Manuel Landaeta Rosales: Collection of Medals, Coins and Tokens (1911). Catalog of the Gutttag Collection (1929); Thomas Stohr: Catalog of Coins, Essays, Tokens and Reseals of Venezuela (1975). Giorgias Garriga: Files, signs and cards of Venezuela (1979). Inventory of the Collection of the Banco de Maracaibo (1979). List of the Garriga Collection in Enrique Lopez: Venezuelan Coins 1802-1980 (1983). Articles appeared in Numis Magazine (1956-2003). Auctions and offer sheets of Numismática Globus (1989-1995). Russell Rulau Catalogs: Latin American Tokens (1991 and 2000). Lots offered in Tu Vendes.com (2002-2003); Lots found on Mercado Libre (Venezuela) and on Ebay (USA) until September 2003, as well as information obtained from several private collections. It does not include resealed coins with initials and/or numerals that cannot be attributed to a specific issuer. Tokens that present serious doubts of being swingline Venezuelan, either by the magnitude of its value, for example '50 Centavos in merchandise', a typically Colombian expression; by their denomination, as in the case of the values in half, the usual unit of account in Colombia and Costa Rica but not in Venezuela, or by the name of the issuer, in the case of Banco Mercantil Americano that never existed in our country, have been excluded from the code. These tokens reflect the economic and social reality of Venezuela in the 19th century and the first half of the 20th century.

27 Betts, Benjamin. MEXICAN IMPERIAL COINAGE. Organization of International Numismatists, Sepulveda.

Original pictorial card covers. b&w coin, medal, currency and document photos throughout. Near Fine. Subject(s): Mexican Coinage, Medals, Paper Money. $50-$60

This catalog provides a detailed chronicle of the numismatic issues of Mexico - the colonial and post-independence coinages, the War of Independence and revolutionary provisionaries, the interesting pattern and proclamation issues, and the particularly significant modern medal issues; in the case of the paper money listings the starting point is the Iturbide issues of 1821-23, carries through the diverse 'Banco' issues of the late 19th century and the Bank of Mexico issues of the past half century, including extensive listings of the issues of the revolution (1910-1917) - all of which are presented in easy to use, chronologically arranged listings commencing with the earliest coinages of Charles and Johanna, and carrying through the latest paper money issues of 1977. A substantial portion of the contents of this catalog - the coin issues from the time of independence (1821) to the present, and paper money commencing in the 1880s - have been adapted from the listings incorporated in two other titles; the Standard Catalog of World Coins and the Standard Catalog of World Paper Money, a pair of comprehensive references to world numismatic issues published by Krause Publications. The earlier coin listings are based on several pioneer works authored by Neil S. Utberg more than a decade ago; the paper money listings on Carlos Gaytan's Paper Currency of Mexico. While this catalog has been designed primarily to serve the American collector market - it is intended to meet the requirements of both novice and advanced collectors - its arrangement by chronological date order, with all issues grouped by denomination and illustrated by type, makes it easy for individuals possessing only a minimal knowledge of Mexican numismatics to quickly adapt to its use. This arrangement likewise facilitates its use by Spanish speaking, or other non-English speaking collectors.

United States Tokens. $40-$50

This book is a reprint from the Journal, Annals of Carnegie Museum, December 1960. To date, no numismatic information has been located which deals primarily with the media of exchange now or formerly used within the various state and federal penitentiaries of the United States. There has been a good deal of numismatic literature prepared on the prisoner-of-war tokens both of the continent of Europe and the British Empire, but apparently nothing has been written about similar media of exchange used in the penitentiaries in the United States except for a few brief notes on the Sing Sing Prison tokens and the tokens of the Nevada State Penitentiary. For this reason, a research project was undertaken for the study of these media of exchange. This monograph presents the information learned as a result of this project.

Subject(s): Shipwrecks. $50-$75

This book is the first to be published that deals exclusively with local shipwrecks and their important role in nautical history and cultural evolution. It follows a present trend among shipwreck specialists, nautical archaeologists, and historians to bring true and responsible documentation on a subject until now virtually dealt with from the point of treasure hunting ventures. In this book ninety nine percent of the data comes from primary sources, thus making a unique contribution to the subject. The sources consulted range from official correspondence of the period, Spanish treasury and accounting records, "Residencia" ledgers on licentiates and governors that exerted duties at the island, ship registries, custom records, Spanish House of Trade dispatches, and even Royal decrees that dealt with Puerto Rico. Over 20,000 primary documents, thousands of secondary sources, 120 microfilm rolls and hundreds of microfiches on primary materials have produced the shipwrecks discussed in this first extensive volume. It is not only destined to become a classic, but will be an indispensable reference for any serious scholar studying Puerto Rico's Spanish colonial past. It embraces mercantilism, history, and ill-fated adventures experienced by early sailors in their quest for fortune and success. In this profusely researched work, the author brilliantly illustrates the naval disasters associated with the history of Puerto Rico. From shipwrecks occurring in local waters to those at offshore places like South and Central America, and the dangerous routes through the Bahamas, the Canary and Azores archipelago, the book covers in detail all presently known calamities.

Jacket edges worn and chipped, Near Very Good. cover edges worn, Very Good. Subject(s): Diving History. $350-$500

Cousteau and Emile Gagnan designed, built, and tested the first 'aqualung' in the summer of 1943, off the southern coast of France. In the opening chapters of the book, Cousteau recounts the earliest days of scuba diving with his diving companions Frederic Dumas and Philippe Tailliez. The aqualung allowed for the first time untethered, free-floating extended deep-water diving, and ushered in the modern era of scuba diving. Later chapters include excursions diving to shipwrecks. This book was the basis of the Academy Award-winning documentary The Silent World (1956). It contains 48 pages of black-and-white photos by various photographers, and 16 pages of color photos, made available by National Geographic Magazine. The hand-held work in Ektachrome 'is the first ever made in significant depths, using artificial light and scientific color correction'. A rare early signature. In the inscription to Weldon, Cousteau mentions his son Philippe-Pierre, who would tragically perish in a plane crash 26 years after the penning of this note.

Bernal Diaz, conquistador and author of this spectacular epic, served under Cortes through the entire Mexican campaign. His Discovery and Conquest of Mexico is the only accurately edited and translated work (there being in existence several corrupt versions), and it is basic source history, the material on which W. H. Prescott and others have leaned so heavily when writing of the Spanish conquest. It is also exciting, lusty and bloody. Diaz was with Cortes when he sank his ships, thus committing his party irrevocably to the conquest; he was close in the counsels of the leaders and was at hand when Montezuma was made a prisoner in his own palace. He fought in over one hundred battles and skirmishes against an enemy who made living sacrifices of their prisoners: cutting out their hearts, butchering their bodies, skinning their bearded faces. These things Diaz saw and wrote about; the result is a magnificent volume indispensable to historians and to readers who delight in sheer adventure. The present book was edited by Genaro Garcia from an exact copy of the original manuscript of Diaz' True History of the Conquest of New Spain, an account of the author's campaigns in Mexico and other countries. Extracts from Garcia's long introduction are printed in this volume, together with the commentary and notes of the translator, A. P. Maudslay.

Jacket/Book Fine. Subject(s): Chilean Coinage. $100-$125

This publication pays homage to the Independent Chilean Peso and to those who made its design and subsequent minting possible. The Independent Chilean Peso was the first coin minted with the symbols of the new country from 1817. Therefore, 2017 commemorates its bicentennial, with two hundred years of history. Another reason why it is considered one of the most important numismatic pieces is due to its design and symbology: the powerful image of an erupting volcano, symbolizing the irrepressible force of a new dawn for a country eager to write its own history. The book begins with describing the symbols of the incipient nation and how they are reflected in the design of the first coins of the new circulation of the Republic of Chile. It continues with addressing the characteristics of this, the decree that authorized it, its assayers, engravers, and presents new information related to the amounts minted per year, by virtue of new documentation analyzed. Finally, the series of Chile Independiente Pesos is presented in each of its minting years and in photographs that show the remarkable imprint of the first coin to carry the denomination 'UN PESO' that was stamped in the American continent.

asure Hunting. $75-$100

KvonM wanted to 'fill the void' between his own Treasure Hunter's Manuals and Nesmith and Potter's 'Treasure Hunters'. Ounce for ounce, the best book ever written about hunting for and finding treasure. 'Sudden Wealth' covers it all in a few short chapters: 'Big Dividends, No Overhead', 'Treasure Is What It Is', 'HUSH Your Mush' (alone worth the price of this book – not just in treasure hunting, but in life!), 'Finder's Keepers,' and much more. There are many layers to all of his books. The stories are, of course, quite interesting. This is a remarkably easy book to read. But these are not just amusing anecdotes from a man who spent as much time in the field as anyone – and certainly more than most. Every tale has a purpose if the reader is smart enough to understand it. See the photo of Karl sitting on a slot machine counting silver cartwheels from 'A king's ransom in silver and gold coins.' If that doesn't make your heart race and your blood pound, this just isn't the book for you! Accurate and concise. Long out of print. Very scarce. I've found my share of buried treasure.. and now enjoy the prosperous retirement that few men can afford. Had this book been available to me 30 years ago, I would be a multi-millionaire today.' - Jim Forsythe, in the Introduction to the first edition The husband-and-wife team of Charles & Gladys penned this classic introduction of successful treasure finding. 'Don't ask them (the Gladsons) if they have heard of the place, if it is in the West; ask them when they were there last.' – Wilbur Charles Miller, Charles Dean [a.k.a. Karl von Mueller, KvonM, Half of Deek Gladson, 'The Dean of American Treasure Hunters']. Karl did more than any other person to popularize the sport of treasure hunting. He was a very successful treasure hunter (and one cannot truthfully state that about many treasure writers) and he was most generous with his time and hard-won knowledge. He wrote several books that are essential reading for the treasure hunter who wants to be a treasure finder. He often wrote that many useful books for the 'ther' don't have treasure in the title, however, many of his did, and they have been more than useful. Karl's trademark expression was 'Exanimo!' It is loosely translated as 'You'd better believe it!' He was a rock of a man and it was all pure ore.

This book on the Republican Medals of Peru is the first publication of this type published on this important topic. Its value is not only in showing the beauty of each metal piece itself, but also in the fact that each one tells us about part of Peru's history. These medals help to bring fundamental events from the past to life and help one to appreciate what the personalities and events that figure in the design of each medal mean. The issuance of medals is deeply linked to the history of the National Mint. For this reason, the Central Reserve Bank of Peru (BCRP) decided to publish this book in 2015 to celebrate the 450th anniversary of the creation of the Lima mint. The first medal that appears in the publication is that of the 'Independence Oath', which was the one that the liberator San Martín delivered to notable neighbors and personalities faithful to the emancipatory cause. The book shows medals of extraordinary rarity such as the Bolívar oval, engraved in gold in 1824, by the artist Miguel Villavicencio; the one alluding to the capture of Callao by the patriots, after General Rodil surrendered and withdrew from the Real Felipe Fortress; that of the ladies of Lima to the Foreign Urban Guard, in 1881, in gratitude for their help after the Battle of Miraflores and of which only 13 pieces were minted in silver; or that of 1879, which appears on the title page of this book, and which the ladies of Lima gave don Miguel Grau while they were alive, melting part of its jewels, in recognition of its value after the monitor Huáscar sank the frigate Esmeralda, during the Pacific War. Reading the legends and observing the images of the medals shows this work, allows us to have a broad panorama of the history of Peru, with all its vicissitudes and ups and downs; value the great compilation work carried out in this field and obtain complementary information for academic research on topics that are not only numismatic but also historical, economic and social.

This is the first comprehensive survey of Byzantine coinage to have been published for many years. Professor Grierson has written a general history of the coinage and a descriptive guide to the coins which will serve the general reader and the historian on the one hand and the numismatist and collector on the other. The standard authority on the subject for the first half of the century was Warwick Wrath's catalogue of the Byzantine coins in the British Museum, published in 1908. It was not until the late 1960s that this began to be superseded by the introductions to the catalogues of the collections of the Dumbarton Oaks Center of Byzantine Studies at Washington and of the Bibliotheque Nationale at Paris. The first of these, however, of which Professor Grierson is joint editor, and author of two volumes, does not at present go beyond 1081, while the second ends in 1204. The present work carries on to the end of the Byzantine Empire. Byzantine coinage is generally taken to begin with the monetary reforms of the emperor Anastasius I in 498, and Professor Grierson's book contains a full account of the ways in which it developed over the nine and a half centuries between that date and the fall of Constantinople to the Turks in 1453. Partly as a result of the preliminary research involved in the preparation of the two catalogues referred to, and partly through the stimulus of the often novel arrangements of material which these embodied, the subject is one on which great progress has been made in our knowledge in recent years. For the period after 1081 Professor Grierson has been able to take account of our new understanding of twelfth and thirteenth-century coinage and of his own research on the coinage of the Palaeologid period. The text is fully annotated throughout, so that the reader can follow the most recent discussion of each theme, and there is a select bibliography. The ninety-five pages of plates illustrate over 1500 coins, mainly chosen from the Dumbarton Oaks collection with whose growth and study much of the author's scholarly life has been associated.

This book discusses the methodology followed in the investigation consisting of 'tracking' the legal instruments related to the minting of coins from 1802 to 1996, interviewing technicians, visiting some coin production plants of transnational companies and examining in detail the pieces that make up the collection of coins and the archive of the Central Bank of Venezuela. In a separate section, the recent experience related to the relative scarcity of coins is reviewed, analyzing the causes that generated it and the activities carried out by the Central Bank of Venezuela to correct the problem and avoid its repetition in the future. Also, a qualitative-quantitative annex on the minting of coins in the period 1802-1996 is presented. Topics covered include: Concept and classification of Venezuelan metallic coins, characteristics of Venezuelan metallic coins, recent relative scarcity of coins: causes and consequences, and activities carried out by the Central Bank of Venezuela.

This work, written in its entirety from contemporaneous publications, is essentially a chronicle of maritime tragedies, which for the greater part have been forgotten, yet at the time of occurrence cost the lives of countless seamen. Every important shipwreck which appeared in a British newspaper or other publication of the period will be found in this volume, together with many other lesser accidents yet every shipwreck, great or small, represented a major tragedy for all concerned. For Great Britain alone, Sir G J Dalyell, a contemporary authority, claimed in 1812 that 'perhaps not less than five thousand natives of these islands yearly perish at sea'. Listed are some 1500 ships, vessels of many nations, naval and mercantile, the result of many years of research, yet they make up a very small proportion of the disasters of the 1793-1815 period.

Cocos Island is the home of the biggest hidden treasure in the world. a vast hoard whose value has been estimated by the most authentic sources at $100,000,000! In this book two men who have covered Central America for some of the world's leading newspapers and who have collected information on Cocos Island for many years trace the history of the various treasures, tell how the booty came to the island and of the many expeditions which have tried to recover it. The main Cocos Island treasure came from Lima, Peru, ancient capital of Spanish South America. It was stripped from the vaults, churches and palaces of the city at the approach of San Martin's victorious rebel armies in 1821, stowed aboard the British merchantman, Mary Dear, and finally buried on lonely Cocos by the treacherous officers and crew. This treasure alone has been estimated at $60,000,000 in gold and silver bullion and jewels, but Cocos had been a favorite treasure cache of the legendary free-booters who preyed on shipping when Spain's South American empire flourished, and many other treasures are believed to be buried there. Stories of millions of dollars in jewels and bullion have sparked the imagination of hundreds of adventurers, led to the formation of syndicates and the outfitting of many expeditions. Some of these expeditions have been superbly equipped and headed by such names as Sir Malcolm Campbell a Count Felix von Luckner; others have been small and surreptitious. But no part of the treasure has ever been found. Cocos Island (which belongs to Costa Rica) lies about 550 miles due west of Panama City. No other island lies between it and the mainland. It is small, about three miles wide by four miles long, and even today it is possible for a small expedition to wander for weeks in its vicinity and never sight it, for Cocos is a tropical island where it rains almost continuously for nine months of the year and intermittently for the other three. Even when it is not totally obscured by heavy rainfall, the island may be blanketed by fog. Somewhere in its steaming jungles lies the greatest treasure on earth!

221 Levy, Brooks Emmons & Pierre C.V. Bastien. ROMAN COINS IN THE PRINCETON UNIVERSITY LIBRARY. VOL I - REPUBLIC TO COMMODUS. Cultura Press, Wetteren. 1985. 4to. xiv, 191, (5) pages. Original brown cloth, gilt. 28 b&w plates. Fine. Subject(s): Ancient Coinage. $25-$40

This book is a catalog of the Roman coins in the collection of the Princeton Library. The catalog is setup as follows: for the coinage of the Republican period, references are given to Crawford (C) and to Sydenham (S). The order and dating of Crawford are followed but should be regarded as approximate: a few suggested revisions of Crawford's dates have already appeared in print, and more are surely to come. For the imperial period (and the end of the Republic), the catalogue employs a division similar to that of the Ashmolean sylloge (AMCRE), which is almost the only modern catalogue to include Greek Imperials with Roman coinage. Where AMCRE uses a fourfold division into state, dynastic, regional, and civic issues, Princeton's arrangement is bipartite, its second division encompassing the material of AMCRE's second, third, and fourth. References for the coinages of state (chiefly, that is, the issues of Rome and Lugdunum, and of branch mints whose products currently seem indistinguishable from Rome's) are regularly to BMC and RIC; the references to RIC2 are given in brackets after those to the first edition, since it is assumed that RIC2 has not yet superseded RIC1 in all libraries and may never do so entirely. For regional and civic issues, the first reference is, where possible, to the British Museum catalogues of Greek coinage (BMC), with at least one additional reference to a more recent, better illustrated, or specialized work. Descriptions are meant to be succinct, though fuller than RIC's: in particular it has seemed advisable, at the cost of some repetition, to describe rather than to label personifications. Of the 1873 pieces in the catalogue's main section 598 appear in the plates. For the Republican period, emphasis is laid on the issues which Crawford's die-estimates suggest were the smaller ones. For the Empire too it has seemed desirable to illustrate, rather than well-preserved common specimens, rarer issues and issues scantily illustrated elsewhere even when the Princeton example is a poorly preserved one.¹¹ Publication of a collection of Roman coins must nowadays be justified by the attention it draws to unknown or inadequately known pieces. The library's holdings in Roman coinages of state include some forty variants on types published in BMC, RIC, and HCC, and there are many more rare pieces in its Greek Imperial series. These are the coins emphasized in the plates. That there should be this much unusual material in a collection somewhat randomly formed, as Princeton's has been, bears out Anne Robertson's observation: what we know today is only a tiny fraction of the coinage issued within the Roman Empire.

Fine. Subject(s): *Spanish American Coinage.

$60-$75

This book describes in detail all the die-varieties of Potosí, Bolivia, cob 4,2,1 and 1/2 reales (silver coins) struck in 1652, a year of transition of design to what has become known as the "pillars-and-waves" style of 1652-1773. The previous design, up to and including 1652, featured instead a full Habsburg coat-of-arms (shield). This book also details the events leading up to the change of design, particularly the investigation and prosecution of fraud at the mine and mint in the 1620s through 1640s that resulted in silver coins that were underweight and below standard in fineness. Also contained in this book are brief descriptions of a couple shipwrecks (the Capitana of 1654 and the Maravillas of 1656) that yielded a majority of these transitional coins in recent decades, enabling a rigorous die-study like this one to finally be realized. The various die changes are illustrated by photos and drawings throughout.

After completing his study of the mint of Ainos in 1950 J. M. F. May turned his attention to the still more difficult problems presented by the very varied issues of Abdera on the north Aegean coast; at the time of his premature death in 1961 his work was very nearly complete and has required only minor editorial revision. On the basis of the largest possible body of material, May has re-established the sequence of issues between the foundation of Abdera in 544 B.C. and its capture by Philip II of Macedon c. 350 B.C. He has also devoted particular attention to elucidating the reasons for the frequent changes in the weight standards on which the coins were struck, and to relating the coinage to its contemporary background. Since similar factors affected both Ainos and Abdera, the present work forms a complement to his earlier study. The plates illustrate almost 500 coins, which include nearly all known dies of this mint.

The obsidional, or siege coinage, as well as the provisional and necessity coins that were struck in Latin America are the scope of this book by the Chilean scholar, José Toribio Medina. The importance of this coinage in history is incomparable as many were used by the Spaniards and patriots during the wars for independence. The provisional coins are probably the most prominent pieces in the numismatic history of the Americas as they were used to pay soldiers and government employees and stabilize the economies of each revolutionary society. The book presents historical information of each provisional mint, and the mints are presented in alphabetical order. There is auction records for coins associated with each mint as well as an obverse and reverse photo for the examples. Very little information from subsequent studies has surpassed the historical contribution from this book and therefore is an important reference for the collector of Latin American revolutionary coinage.

In the 1520s the Spanish crown began to realize through expanded explorations of the likes of Hernando Cortez and Francisco Pizarro that it was in charge of an enormous empire requiring extensive settlement and systems of control. Royal mints were founded to control, evaluate and tax gold and silver coming from the mines, as well as to produce the coins needed for everyday commercial transactions. For some 250 years the mints churned out millions of cob-style coins, many of which found their way into the treasure galleons of the day. Soon mints such as Mexico and Potosi became known as the financial 'pillars of empire' and enabled Spain to engage in seemingly endless wars of conquest and plunder. Geography, crown intransigence, bureaucratic incompetence, royal intrigues and outright scandal all had an impact on the mints and their productions. In this comprehensive and fully referenced study, Sewall Menzel brings out the critical detail and information needed to understand the ten early Spanish mints of Mexico, Santo Domingo, Peru, Potosi, Panama, Santa Fe de Nuevo Reino (Bogotá), Cartagena, Cuzco, Guatemala and Cuba and their respective coinages. Through the use of some two thousand photos and diagrams the coins are identified by mint, king, denomination, mint assayer and type.

Subject(s): Ancient Coinage. $25-$35

The first portion of this Society publication is a catalogue of over 900 pieces from a hoard (estimated at over 2,000 coins) that was discovered in Cappadocia, probably in Caesarea, in 1983; all but one are didrachms traditionally assigned to the mint of Caesarea. These are the points of departure for a conspectus of all Cappadocian silver of the period. Commentaries deal with the coinage reign by reign, and concluding chapters summarize the significance of the hoard and the coinage. A catalogue of the hoard is followed by an illustrated conspectus of the silver coinage minted in Caesarea between the reigns of Vespasian and Commodus. A major conclusion is that not all Cappadocian silver was actually struck in Caesarea. Metcalf argues that portions of the coinage of Vespasian and his family, of Trajan, and of Marcus Aurelius and Lucius Verus were actually produced at Rome; and that all the coinage of Domitian was struck there. The volume concludes with five appendices (including a discussion of the silver and copper coins, 'ghost' coins, and a concordance with Sydenham) and four indices.

The myths and beliefs of the great Pre-Columbian civilizations of Mesoamerica have baffled and fascinated outsiders ever since the Spanish Conquest. Yet, until now, no single-volume introduction has existed to act as a guide to this labyrinthine symbolic world. Nearly 300 entries, from accession to yoke, describe the main gods and symbols of the Olmecs, Zapotecs, Maya, Teotihuacanos, Mixtecs, Toltecs and Aztecs. Topics range from jaguar and jester gods to reptile eye and rubber, from creation accounts and sacred places to ritual practices such as bloodletting, confession, dance and pilgrimage. Two introductory essays provide succinct accounts of Mesoamerican history and religion, while a substantial bibliographical survey directs the reader to original sources and recent discussions. Dictionary entries are illustrated with photographs and commissioned line drawings. This is an authoritative work, a standard reference for students, scholars and travelers.

This book is the best bibliography of lost and buried treasure, prospecting, history of the American West as it relates to finding treasure, etc. In this book there are thousands of references on every aspect of treasure hunting. A detailed index helps guide the researcher through this treasure trove of information. For the book, Ms. Conatser catalogued KvonM's extensive research library. The authors had a falling out, and this book was never reprinted. Many copies have underlinings and former owner's notes. This one does not. Very Scarce. In this book, 'The Old Man' (although he wasn't quite so old when this was written in the mid-1960's!) covers treasure hunting from Aaron's Express (a book he wrote about several times, that no bibliophile has been able to locate) to 'zigafoos' ('a charm or talisman carried by professional treasure hunters for the purpose of identification or recognition'). It's all here as precise, concise entries: lost mines, famous buried treasures, treasures found, organizations, books, magazines, metal detector manufacturers (remarkable how almost all are now out of business), and much more. This book is a remarkable insight into the shadowy world of professional treasure hunting. A very different world of the 1950's and 1960's. Includes the publisher's select bibliography. Very scarce. Buried, Sunken Treasure. $125-$150

Approximately half of this book concerns sunken treasure, contrary to its title (which suggests buried treasure). The book includes the story of William Phips and the 'Concepcion', the 'Lutine', the 'Hussar', the Vigo Bay galleons, and several references to Art McKee, the 1715 Fleet and 1733 Fleet. The author was the owner of Foul Anchor Archives, a Rye, New York bookstore dedicated to treasure hunting books, and a noted scholar on Spanish American cobs.

This book expounds upon the life and times of a remarkable group of rogues. Flamboyant figures, capable of ferocious cruelty to their victims, they were men like the satanic Edward Teach (Black beard) and the savage Francois L'Olonois, before whom the swashbuckling pirate heroes of romantic legend would have quailed in fear. The author's fascinating survey charts the course of piracy from the earliest times to the present day, from the rum-soaked buccaneers of the Caribbean, to the pirates of the Spanish Main, from the barbary corsairs of the Medi terranean, to the pira junks of the China Seas. A thrilling tale of thunder, of fabulous riches won and lost, it is tempered by accounts of the appalling privations suffered by many early pirates on their long sea voyages. Crews were decimated by scurvy, and the surgeon's knife and the threat of gangrene were as lethal as injuries received in battle. Carefully documented studies of many of the great pirate captains have brought some startling revelations. The infamous Captain Kidd, for example, a much-maligned man, took to piracy only after a mutinous crew forced him to abandon his legitimate privateer edict. The history of the government-sponsored privateers is not neglected, as they were pirates in all but name. Among the greatest of privateer captains was Sir Francis Drake, whose rapacious desire for plunder sustained him throughout an arduous circumnavigation of the globe. Other chapters are devoted to the pirates' natural habitat (their 'haunts and havens'), their brawling, boozing lifestyle, their peculiarly democratic codes of conduct, and that most rare of creatures, the lady buccaneer.

This book is an illustrated descriptive analysis of the United States lettered edge half dollars from 1794 thru the final year of this type in 1836. It covers hundreds of varieties illustrated in conjunction with their scientifically patterned descriptions. Many important but previously obscure varieties, such as the 1806 round top 6, without stem thru claw, 1814 and 1817 single leaf reverses, 1823 broken and patched 3 varieties, the 1828 with rare small letter reverse etc. all these and many others are now made crystal clear with photographs and a precise, consistent method of brief but accurate descriptions. In the compilation of this work, it is estimated that over ten thousand lettered edge half dollars were closely examined checked and compared. With this book the collector as well as the professional dealer should be able to ascertain the die variety and rarity of most lettered edge half dollars quickly and positively.

Subject(s): Venezuelan Coinage. $25-$35

This book is a catalog and guide to coins minted during the Venezuelan numismatic period, from 1802 onwards, an estimated 331 coins. This includes the coins minted in Colombia at the time of Gran Colombia (1819-1830), but does not include coins minted in Venezuela, some obidental in nature (Maracaibo, Margarita, Barinas) and others probably minted in Caracas that have not yet been minted. identified; for obvious reasons it also does not include all variants or trials. Excluding those indicated, the collection of Venezuelan coins is not greatly affected by a large volume of them, however, this could lead one to think that there is a certain ease to complete a collection of the 331 coins, it is not so because of the rarity with which certain coins are presented. Topics covered: Degree of conservation, Colonial and independence period 1802 - 1821, Period of Gran Colombia 1819 - 1830, Republic of Venezuela 1830 - 1863, United States of Venezuela 1863 - 1953, Republic of Venezuela 1953 to present, Degree of rarity of Venezuelan coins, Order of rarity in each denomination and the 25 rarest coins of Venezuelan numismatics.

Buried Treasure. $75-$100

This book is 'a true history of the gold, jewels, and plate of pirates, galleons, etc., which are sought for to this day'. Contrary to its title, about half of the book regards sunken treasure, the rest of it is land treasure. It includes chapters about the 'Thetis', the Spanish Armada galleon, 'Florenia', the Vigo Bay galleons, the 'Lutine' and William Phips and his salvage of the 'Concepcion' as well as chapters on Captain Kidd, William Phips, John Quelch, El Dorado, the Divining Rod, Practical Hints for Treasure Seekers and etc. The author of this book is a renowned expert whose personal fascination with buried treasure has found expression in a number of popular volumes on this topic.

Inscribed by both authors. Maps. Color historical, document and token photos throughout. Spanish text. Fine. Subject(s): Guatemalan Tokens. $150-$200

The book tells the story of the use of private currencies, known as tokens, to pay workers, which were used more than 120 years ago in Guatemala. It is the opinion of the authors, that the use of this currency boosted the economic growth of the time, mainly in coffee and sugar farms. The book contains maps from the time, photos of the farms, copies of the farm announcements that were used in town festivals, stamps, and many images from that time. A well-illustrated and monumental work.

Coinage. $50-$60

This book is the second edition to Paoletti's original esteemed work on Potosi cob 8 Reales of all periods. All of the coins are assigned consecutive numbers and arranged under pertinent categories and subheadings. The coin photographs for each entry are excellent and include many enlargements of details mentioned in the discussion of the dies. While not a technical die study, the author clearly delineates all known important features and characteristics of the recorded varieties for every year of issue, with a detailed discussion of the progressions of stylistic changes and assayers' tenures. This work is of utmost importance to anyone who is interested in the early Potosi coinages whether it be collectors, dealers, scholars, treasure hunters or salvors.

Subject(s): Spanish American Coinage. $60-$75

This book examines the coinage minted in Potosi between 1576-1773, to trace the overlap and transitions between assayers. Few assayers minted coins without reusing previous dies. The resulting re-engraved pieces are here described in minute detail while also treated as historic artifacts, thus revealing both the socioeconomic and political context of its time. An excellent reference for the collector of Potosi cobs from the author of 8 Reales Cobs of Potosi.

Subject(s): Sunken Treasure. $40-$50

This book recounts the history of the 'S.S. Brother Jonathan', a sidewheeler that sank off Northern California in 1865 carrying a large shipment of gold coins. It also tells of the struggle between the salvors and the State of California in getting a search permit approved and later a salvage permit, and the infighting between the investors. In the end, the lawyers were the real winners. Very well researched.

United States Antiquities. $65-$100

This book, based on original sources, fills a long-standing need for clear information on a fascinating area of American military art, bringing before us an extraordinary array of military and naval flags of the Revolution. Over two hundred brightly emblomed silk and bunting standards, colors, and ensigns are illustrated and described here, reflecting the individualism of a people seeking independence and national identity. The color photographs of all known surviving original flags together with the artist's reconstructions from fragments illuminate the thoughtful artistry and meticulous craftsmanship found in the era's flag design and fabrication. The book encompasses colonial flag design and symbols, Liberty and Union colors, the standards and ensigns of continental and state armies and navies, as well as the standards and colors of the French, Loyalist, British, and German units that fought on American soil. Included also are versions of the Liberty and Union flags, along with army regimental, battalion, company, and troop standards and navy and marine ensigns. Appendices provide quotations from letters, orders, and journals of Washington, Congress, and other sources concerning the design and supply of flags and on Philadelphia flag makers. A glossary of flag terminology and a summary of the organization of the armed forces are also included. A scholarly guide and dependable reference for historians and organizations concerned with the Revolution and military history in general, the book concentrates on describing, authenticating, identifying, and illustrating each flag in detail, while avoiding digressions on personalities, battles, and regimental history.

337 Richter, Jürg. DIE SCHÜTZENTALER UND SCHÜTZENMEDAILLEN DER SCHWEIZ. H. Gietal Verlag & Publikationservice GMBH, Regenstauf. 2005. 4to. 408 pages.

Original pictorial boards. b&w and color plates throughout. Fine. Subject(s): Swiss Coinage, Medals. $150-$250

This book deals with both the history and the historical background of the Schützentaler and rifle medals in Switzerland. More than 2100 talers and medals from the early 17th century to 1960 are described and largely illustrated. Details of the rarity and value of each individual piece are included in two grades of preservation. Several hundred medals are shown in this catalog for the first time. The highlights of this high-quality volume range from embossing from the middle of the 19th century through to magnificently designed medals from the Art Nouveau period. Extremely rare pieces, often even unique pieces, especially from the early years of the marksmen's festival can be seen. Towards the end of the 19th century, different commemorative coinages were often issued for the same rifle festival on important occasions. These wonderfully designed contemporary witnesses are still an expression of this sport and its patriotic ideas. With this publication, a new standard work is presented to the reader interested in numismatics.

Subject(s): Spanish American Coinage. $50-$75

This well illustrated book serves as the catalog of an extraordinary exhibit that commemorates the fifth centenary of the discovery of the New World by the Spanish. The exhibition, 'The Gold and Silver of the Indies in the time of the Habsburgs', was financed by the ICO Foundation and held at the Centro Cultural de la Villa in Madrid. La Villa y Corte, which irradiated in the New World all the vicissitudes of politics, science, arts and religion that were common here, is a propitious place to welcome the work of forty specialists who have studied in detail the cycle that begins with samples of pre-Columbian works in gold and silver and extends to the testimony of the influence exerted by gold and silver from America on the development of the arts, the economy and finances during the 16th and 17th centuries. Throughout the 2,000 square meters that the exhibition occupies, visitors can see paintings, prints, cartography, plans of cities, ports and fortifications, jewelry, coins, shipwrecks, construction models, ships, etc. Although the memory of the colonizing feat carried out by the Spanish and the development of mining is extremely attractive, it is no less attractive to recall the difficult problems of transport, with the added risk of storms, piracy and the arrival of silver in Seville, first, and later to Cadiz. And, along with these historical milestones, the role of Madrid as the capital of an Empire where the sun did not set, the residence of the Court and the cultural and political capital of the entire world.

This book is a catalog and guide to Roman coins. The catalogue entries have been expanded to include a virtually complete listing of the entire Roman Republican series, as well as more comprehensive coverage of the much larger and more complex Imperial series. Greater emphasis is now placed on the precise chronology and place of mintage of each type and extensive coverage is given to the important series of billon and bronze coins struck at Alexandria over a period of more than 300 years. The valuations have been exhaustively researched from recent auction records and fixed price catalogues and many professional numismatists have contributed their valuable opinions on specific series. Prices (both in British pounds and US dollars) are now expressed in either two or three grades of preservation for each entry, usually 'VF' and 'EF' for precious metal issues, and 'F', 'VF' and 'EF' for Imperial bronzes. Perhaps most importantly, the number of photographic illustrations in the text has been increased, and their quality improved. The latest editions of this standard reference.

Fine. Subject(s): Italian Mint History. $50-$75

This book is the first to examine the workings of a premodern mint using extensive research in original documents as well as detailed study of the coins themselves. The first of the book's three sections traces the coinage of Venice from its origins in the ninth century as a minor, and unofficial, regional Italian coinage to its position at the dawn of the Renaissance as the dominant currency of Mediterranean trade. The second section, entitled 'The Mint in the Life of Medieval Venice,' illustrates the mechanisms of the control of bullion and the strategies for mint profit and explores the mint's role in Venetian trade and the emergence of a bureaucratized government. The third section, 'Within the Mint,' examines the physical operations that transformed raw bullion into coins and identifies the personnel of the mint, situating the holders of each position in the context of their social and professional backgrounds. Illustrated with photos of Venetian coinage from the world's major collections, Zecca also includes a listing of all holders of offices related to the medieval Venetian mint and summaries of all major finds of medieval Venetian coins. Winner of the Professional/Scholarly Publishing Award in Economics from the Association of American Publishers.

The first edition of this primary work on the subject, covering the 12th to the early 18th centuries. There has been no complete book written on Scottish coins for sixty-five years. In the last few years with the greatly increased interest in numismatics, the need has grown for a book on Scottish coinage which presents in a straightforward way an historical and critical account of the different types and issues, combined with a list of known coins. In this work there is quite a large amount of new material on the Scottish series of coins and several cases of rearrangement.

395 Stohr, Tomás & Ernesto Armitano (Ed.). MONEDAS DE VENEZUELA. Tomás Stohr, Caracas. 1980. Square 4to. 140, (4) pages. Original ochre pictorial cloth, jacket. Color coin photos throughout. Spanish text. Jacket/Book Fine. Subject(s): Venezuelan Coinage. $50-$75

This book is dedicated to the coins of Venezuela. The author's intention in preparing it has been to offer something to each reader: the collector as well as the art lover, the historian, the scholar or the curious. For this reason, it gathers a little historical information with numismatic, economic, social and even anecdotal data. It covers from the colonial period to the present day, and although it is not an exhaustive work on the numismatic history of Venezuela, it allows a global view of everything that has happened in terms of coins during that time.

396 Stohr, Tomas. MACVQUINAS DE VENEZUELA. Tomas Stohr, Caracas. 1992. Square 4to. (4), ix, 210 pages. Original black embossed cloth, jacket. Signed by the author. Tables. Diagrams. Line illustrations. b&w coin and coin detail photos throughout. Spanish and English text. Jacket/Book Fine. Subject(s): Venezuelan Coinage. $50-$75

This book endeavors to rectify the uncertainty about the macuquinas of Venezuela. Articles and catalogs constantly appeared discussing coins from Barinas, coins from Maracaibo, ghost dates, or summarily: emergency coins from Venezuela. The author has dedicated several years to the study of the macuquinas of Venezuela. This publication is the result of that effort. Each coin was carefully researched to relate it with data from respective documents to recognize the proofs of chronology inherent in the coins. Some coins have been determined to be macuquinas based on highly plausible probabilities. These determinations will remain until that time should documents be found or other data come to light that may confirm or disprove those conclusions.

404 Thompson, Margaret. ALEXANDER'S DRACHM MINTS. 2 VOLUMES. The American Numismatic Society, New York. 1983, 1991. 4to. This lot includes the following volumes:

(1) Alexander's Drachm Mints. I - Sardes and Miletus. Thompson, Margaret. 1983. New York. original red cloth, gilt. (6), 98 pages. 38 plates. Fine. Numismatic Studies, No. 16. This book, the first volume on Alexander's drachm mints, gives a detailed account of the coinage produced from about 330-300 B.C. in the cities of Miletus and Sardes in Asia Minor (modern Turkey). The mints of Miletus and Sardes produced primarily coins in drachm denominations that they issued in the tens of thousands. The author's analysis of this coinage is divided into three chapters: one on issues attributed to Sardes, one on issues attributed to Miletus, and one describing sixty-six ancient coin hoards that contain specimens relevant to the chronology of these two mints. Thirty-eight high-quality plates clearly illustrate 800 coins. It is a scholarly work that will be appreciated by Classical numismatists, specialists in ancient history and economics, and students of the history of Alexander's extensive empire.

(2) Alexander's Drachm Mints. II - Lampsacus and Abydus. Thompson, Margaret. 1991. New York. original red cloth, gilt. 77, (3) pages. 34 plates. Fine. Numismatic Studies, No. 19. This book, the second volume on Alexander's drachm mints, gives a detailed account of the coinage produced from about 330-300 B.C. in the cities of Lampsacus and Abydus in Asia Minor (modern Turkey). The mints of Lampsacus and Abydus produced primarily coins in drachm denominations that they issued in the tens of thousands. The author's analysis of this coinage is divided into three chapters: one on issues attributed to Lampsacus, one on issues attributed to Abydus, and one describing forty-seven ancient coin hoards that contain specimens relevant to the chronology of these two mints. Thirty-four high-quality plates clearly illustrate over 400 coins. It is a scholarly work that will be appreciated by Classical numismatists, specialists in ancient history and economics, and students of the history of Alexander's extensive empire.

This book is a compilation of data Louis van Belkum compiled from the National Currency and Bond Ledgers in the National Archives showing the issuances for each national bank in the country plus ancillary data pertaining to the given banks. Van Belkum sold these data to collectors. In time, Lyn Knight began to accumulate the data for the country by trading it from the state collectors who had purchased it. He eventually got virtually all of it, which Van Belkum and his wife had hand typed on 5 x 7 cards. Knight organized those cards and photocopied many sets. He had several sets bound, which he then marketed to collectors. In due course, but separately, Hickman & Oakes, Don Kelly, and Steinmetz compiled all those data into a single manageable volume for the country, which they marketed. This item, the Pennsylvania volume, is an artifact from Lyn Knight's original bound volumes.

Original cream cloth, green and gold gilt. Rio Grande Classics reprint of the 1936 first edition. Illustrated. Map. Mapped end papers. Fine. Subject(s): Treasure Hunting. $50-$75

This book overviews 17 successful treasure hunts on both land and under the sea. Regarding sunken treasure, it includes the author's 2 trips to Silver Shoals seeking the 'Concepcion', dredging for the 'Golden Hind', the 'Santa Margarita', the steamship 'Merida' (which was supposed to be carrying Emperor Maximilian's wealth), the 'Hussar' (a Revolutionary War pay ship which sank in New York's East River), and the salvage of the liner, 'Laurentic'. Verrill wrote several books on treasure hunting, and they are important because they are well-researched and far more accurate than most. He didn't simply copy the work of previous treasure authors, or overly embellish the facts.

Subject(s): Germanic Coinage. $140-$200

This general catalog describes over 3200-coin types with all years, which could be taken from the collection descriptions Fiala, Knigge and Knyphausen, from all important auctions since 1900 and from the collections known today. The coinage in the periods of bracteates, pfennigs, groschen, tipper coins and the newest coins up to the dissolution of the Kingdom of Hanover and the Duchy of Brunswick are described in an individual way adapted to their uniqueness. At the same time, the work provides a table of contents for the collections of the kings of Hanover (Fiala), Knigge and Knyphausen and gives the catalog numbers of these collections for the individual coins. The synoptic tables of the Guelph princes, published for the first time, permit an overview and orientation of the secular and spiritual princes, their lands and lineages that was not previously possible. In the second volume, the author has succeeded in showing as many coin types as possible from the minting period of each mint maker, in the order from the largest to the smallest value. The bracteates are presented contiguously in their historical order and clearly show the deterioration of the style from Henry the Lion to the 15th century. Rarely collected and hardly available coins, such as the coins of the estates in the 14th century, the Kipper and Wipper times and the medieval groschen, were also taken into account. The volume also contains the coins of the Welf bishops of Bremen, Hildesheim, Minden, Osnabrück, Ratzeburg, Verden and Walkenried. The coins depicting the dukes represent a picture book of the Guelph princes. The extensive text section brings in all the mottos of all Guelph coins with the translation of the Latin texts, a list of the naturalized names of the Guelph coins ('nasal bleeds gulden', 'Zwietrachtstaler'), a heraldic section, a geographical map, the planetary symbols as well as country and location information. The illustrations correspond to their numbering in volume one.

447 White, R. Byron & Marjorie White. A COMPREHENSIVE FINDING LIST OF CHINESE CASH. T'ANG TO REPUBLIC. K'AI YUAN TO MIN KUO, 618 AD TO 1912 AD. TOGETHER WITH LOCKHART'S LISTING OF THE CHINESE DYNASTIES. BAI Publications, Sheldonville. 1976. 4to. NP pages. Original white card covers. Tables with symbols. Fine. Subject(s): Chinese Coinage. $50-$75

This book is intended to facilitate the procedure of quick identification and assignment of a reference number to Chinese Cash coins. The currently available references have been compared and the results shown in the charts. The Nien-hao list has been made as complete as possible even though none of the usual references picture the coin. The intent has been to list all Chinese and only Chinese cash from the K'ai Yuans of T'ang to the Republic. Included are both those belonging and not belonging to the regular dynastic line; where there is a question of origin it is noted. A number of pieces are listed with reference only by Smith and Coole. If such a piece is at hand, it must be rare. The listings from Coole must be followed for more complete identification. Of the references given, Smith will be published about the same time as this book. The Glover collection by Lockhart is not available but many old collections are listed by Glover numbers. The procedure is simple: find the top character of the coin in either the Alphabetical or Character Index, refer to the given number in the charts and there find the second character of the Nien-hao. The dynasty and date given are for the first listed coin of that Nien-hao in that book. The last pages of this book are a reprint of the Chinese Dynasty tables from Volume III of the 'Currency of the Farther East' by J.H. Stewart Lockhart. The listings of the dynasties not belonging to the regular line are very difficult to find. There are other listings that do not agree with these but the differences are usually in minor detail of a few years in the date of accession or date of adoption of a Nien-hao. There are, of course, other Chinese cash-like pieces not covered by these listings, the commemorative pieces, palace coins and amulets.

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from the United States, Latin America, Mexico, and other foreign countries, the majority of the lots coming from the United States and from the Thomas H. Sebring Collection of shipwreck coins, ingots, and artifacts. The Sebring collection includes cobs, portrait coins, Tumbaga bars, and medallions. Thomas Sebring (1929 - 2017) is the author of 'Treasure Tales - Shipwrecks & Salvage' and a noted shipwreck coin authority. Among the 139 lots are coins from almost every major shipwreck, a William Phips medallion, 5 Tumbaga bars, 4 Vigo Bay medallions, and a 'S.S. Central America' medallion. Each shipwreck represented by material in the sale is briefly described.

500 American Numismatic Rarities, LLC., Spink. THE LOUIS E. ELIASBERG, SR. COLLECTION OF WORLD GOLD COINS AND MEDALS. April 18-19, 2005. 4to. 1-3623 Lots. Original pictorial card covers. This catalog presents numismatic material from Latin America and other foreign countries and is primarily dedicated to the historic offering of world gold coinage and medals formed by Louis E. Eliasberg, Sr.; this sale is a virtual panorama of world gold coinage from early times to the modern era, with emphasis on the last several centuries. The sale provides something for everyone, as in his interest in forming a comprehensive cabinet the owner necessarily acquired the common along with the rare. The vast majority of the coins offered have been hidden away in a bank vault for a generation. In nearly all instances this will be the first occasion in the lifetime of anyone reading this catalogue that particular specimens have become available. While the catalogue listings speak for themselves, emphasis in particular is on gold coins of the Spanish dominions of Central and South America. Not only is the offering extensive, but the quality is often beyond compare, with lustrous examples of issues that are typically seen well worn, if at all. The foundation stone of the collection was the John H. Clapp collection of world gold coins, focusing on issues of Latin America. The Clapp collection of over 1,000 coins was formed in large part from the collections formed by Clapp's father, John M. Clapp, and the collection Harry F. Williams sold to Waldo C. Newcomer in 1918, which saw eventual dispersal via auction in 1935. Never before in the history of numismatics has such a comprehensive offering taken place, and given the time needed to assemble these pieces and their general availability now, the accomplishment will never be repeated. With this auction the coins pass from a former generation to the new. Also included in this catalog is the brief biography, 'Louis E.

Subject(s): Spanish, Spanish American Coinage. $275-$325

The nine volumes that comprise the collection ISABEL DE TRASTÁMARA, almost four centuries of Spanish numismatics have been covered. The Habsburg dynasty has been the subject of four tomes clad in deep blue, and the Bourbons until the First Republic, have occupied another four, covered in bright purple. The ninth chapter of this amazing numismatic compilation encompasses the shared reign of Fernando and Isabel; the name of the latest has been given to the whole collection as homage to one of the strongest characters in European history. The matrimonial union of the two unsuspected heirs to the respective crowns led to the construction of the Spanish Monarchy, and the two successive monetary systems that they settled mean the end of the medieval coinage in their kingdoms of Castilla and Leon. These catalogues bear tribute to those historical achievements, in no lesser measure it is intended as an acknowledgment to the vast and most selected collection of the Catholic Kings ever assembled.

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Spain and the Spanish Americas. The specialty of the duros of Fernando VII to which the collection of this catalog is dedicated offers incentives in various aspects. The time of Fernando VII so moved, saw the Napoleonic Wars with the Bonapartist defeat; the birth of most of the American Nations; the influence in Spain of the doctrines of the French Revolution; the liberal and absolutist tendencies, all framed in a character so discussed and mistreated by History as Ferdinand VII himself. All these conjunctures are reflected in the coins of this period; the broadcasts made when Spain was still occupied by the French; the first after the victory; the latest mintages of the Spanish Provinces of America; those of the constitutional era and those of the return to absolute power. It is logical that monetary issues that cover such an extensive geographical area and such important historical events have a large audience among collectors; moreover, when, as in the present case, the collection has been formed with the wise criteria of someone who knows and deeply loves a given subject, the scholar will have to find multiple details that will enrich the object of his studies.

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Ancient Rome and the Byzantine Empire, Mexico, Latin America, Europe, and other foreign countries and includes an extensive selection of gold coins from the 1715 Spanish Fleet wrecks. The sale was the first to offer a large quantity of coins from the 1715 Fleet, although this was not advertised at the time of the auction. It seems that the National Geographic Society had the exclusive rights to announce the discovery of this fabulous treasure (and had not yet made the announcement). But anyone who knows the history of the 1715 Fleet will recognize the names on the title of the catalog, 'Ubilla-Echevez', as the commanders of the New Spain Flota and the Tierra Firme Galleons. The catalog contains 106 lots of gold cobs from the 1715 Fleet, including five gold royals.

774 Christie's - Dallas. THE NORWEB COLLECTION OF MEXICAN AND SOUTH AMERICAN COINS. This lot includes the following catalogs:

(1) Christie's - Dallas. The Norweb Collection of Mexican and Central American Coins. May 17-18, 1985. 1-850 Lots. 4to. Original pictorial card covers. Public Auction Sale. Dallas. 192 Pages. 4 color coin plates. b&w coin photos throughout. Fine. This catalogue contains the first part of a two-part sale of the Norweb collection of Mexican coins. The very extensive Mexican collection was divided into the colonial series and the Republican coinage. This sale catalog contains the colonial coins. The Norweb collection of coins of Peru was donated before the sale to the American Numismatic Society and at the time of this sale, the coins of Brazil were being retained by the family. The coins of this sale cover a wide area and are bristling with rarities. There are many examples of the more standard coins as well as a great many highlights which include the following: a Presentation 'Royal' 8 Escudos of Mexico, Philip V dated 1702; a Mexico 4 Reales 1732; a Mexico 4 Reales 1643; Guatemala: a very strong group of gold including the 8 Escudos of 1737; a Santo Domingo 4 Reales of Charles and Joanna; a Greenland Dollar 1771; and finally, there is a substantial group of coins from the West Indies. It is one of the best collections of Mexican and Latin American coins to be sold at auction at its time.

(2) Christie's - Dallas. The Norweb Collection of Mexican and South American Coins. November 6-7, 1985. 1-1020 Lots. 4to. Original pictorial card covers. Public Auction Sale. Dallas. 214 Pages. 4 color coin plates. b&w coin photos throughout. Fine. This catalog contains the second and final portion of the Collection of Mexican, Central and South American coins formed by the late Mrs. Emery May Holden Norweb of Cleveland, Ohio. The sale opens with the coins of the two Mexican Empires followed by the Republican and United States issues. Six important regal 4 escudos coins, omitted from the first sale, end the Mexican series. Then follow the coins of the Latin American Republics arranged in alphabetical order, starting with Argentina. The illustrations show a wide range of varieties and types, denominations and mints. It has not been practical to illustrate every example of the Mexican Escudo and Peso series, but a selective choice has been made based on rarity and condition. As with the coins sold in the first auction the collection contains a great many rarities, but special mention should perhaps be made of the following coins; - The Mexico City 'Hidalgo' Pattern 20-Pesos 1892; - Estado de Mexico 8-Escudos 1829; - Guanajuato Mint Pattern 8-Reales 1827; - Ferdinand VII 4-Escudos of Guadalajara Mint 1812; - The Patagonia Patterns of S. M. Orelie Antoine 1874; - Bolivia Pattern 4-Sueldos 1827; - Chile 8-Reales 1762 and 4-Reales 1760; - Colombia 8-Reales 1759 and an extensive series of Colombian Patterns; - Paraguay Piedfort Pattern Peso 1888; - A series of the Caracas coinage of Venezuela and the Pattern and Currency issue 10-Reales of General Paez 1863. The sale includes a number of Royal Mint Patterns by William Wyon and his son, L. C. Wyon, both of whom had a considerable influence in the design of the coinage of Central and South America. There are also a number of Patterns struck by the Heaton Mint of Birmingham.

Subject(s): British Coinage, Medals. $20-$30

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Great Britain as collected by Archbishop Sharp (1645-1745). This sale comprises English Coins and Commemorative Medals in gold, silver and copper from Charles I to 1714, the date of the archbishop's death, and Colonial Coins, mostly Early American, of the same period. Although some items were undoubtedly put into the collection after 1714 by the archbishop's descendants, e.g., Lot 294, the medal of Inigo Jones by John Kirk, nearly all were without any doubt collected during the archbishop's own lifetime. As with many old collections, the quality of the coins varies considerably, though many later pieces of William III and Anne are very often in exceptionally good condition. As might be expected, several varieties came to light when cataloguing, coins not recorded in E.S.C. or B.M.C. (Copper).

Original green printed paper boards. Public Auction Sale. London. 1 color coin plate. Text illustrations. Estimates list laid in. cover sunned, interior Fine. Subject(s): British Coinage. $20-$30

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Great Britain from the Captain K.J. Douglas-Morris Collection of English gold coinage. Captain Douglas-Morris started his collection in 1962. From the outset, the objective was to assemble as complete a range of types as possible, concentrating especially on the Patterns and Proofs for which no standard work yet exists, thus enabling the collection to be used for study purposes. The great strength of this collection lies in the superb condition of almost every coin and whilst the Patterns and Proofs are brilliant, almost without exception, the few currency pieces which show any signs of wear are those of such great rarity that better specimens are virtually unknown. For the benefit of the student, especially in the absence of an authoritative work of reference on Patterns and Proofs, every coin has been illustrated and described as fully as an auction catalogue will allow. Of particular interest are the following pieces:

Queen Anne, the five-guineas, guinea and half-guinea of Vigo type, 1703 George II, the series of 13 two-guineas from various dies, 1733-53 George III, the complete series of Pattern five-guineas and two-guineas, 1768-77 George III, the run of Pattern and Proof guineas, including 1761 William IV, the five-pounds, two-pounds, sovereigns and half-sovereigns of 1831 Victoria, and the group of Pattern five-pound pieces of 1839. Important for English gold.

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Ancient Greece and Rome as part of the Nelson Bunker Hunt collection. Four or five times a century, an outstanding collection of ancient coins comes on the market illustrating a series of specimens in such a superb state of preservation, of such historical significance and of so comprehensive a scope, that they become standard reference works in their own right. This volume, the third of the catalogues of the Nelson Bunker Hunt Collection, is destined to take its place among them and on the library shelf of all serious numismatists. The Hunt brothers began assembling their collections in the late 1970s, frequently buying large quantities of remarkable coins at aggressive prices. Tom Eden catalogued the Greek coins, with David Tripp cataloguing the Roman material. The sale catalogues are expertly written and beautifully illustrated.

Brazilian coinage. $35-$50

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Brazil with the main focus on gold coins believed to be the personal property of Captain Robert Clive. The gold treasure of Captain Robert Clive (of India fame) was known to have been lost in the wreck of the English East India Company ship, 'Dodington', which sank in 1755 off the coast of South Africa but what happened to the gold after that is a mystery. This sale contains 431 lots of gold pecas and one lot with an 800 reis coin. These were salvaged from an unidentified wreck in the Indian Ocean but are believed by some to be Clive's gold by virtue of the fact that the weight and composition of the find match almost exactly what was listed on the manifest of the 'Dodington' (653 oz. and 6 dwt.). Some have speculated that pirates found where the survivors of the 'Dodington' buried the coins and sailed away with them only to have their ship sink in the Indian Ocean (where the coins were actually recovered).

1186 Spink - New York. ANCIENT, FOREIGN AND UNITED STATES COINS AND MEDALS. December 10-11, 2001. 4to. 1-1097 Lots. Original pictorial card covers. Public Auction Sale. New York, 141 pages. 5 color coin plates, 47 b&w coin plates. Fine. Subject(s): Ancient, Latin American, European, United States, World coinage. $35-$50

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Ancient Greece, Rome, and the Byzantine Empire, Latin America, Europe, the United States, and other foreign countries with the main focus on coins from the 'Isla de Muerto' wreck, a collection of British medals, and a collection of proclamations and coins relating to Simon Bolivar. The 'Isla de Muerto' collection contains 391 lots of silver cobs (representing many thousands of coins) salvaged from the 'Isla de Muerto' wreck in Ecuador. The wreck may well be the 'Salvador y San Jose,' which sank in 1680. Most of the coins were well worn from having been salvaged in a high energy environment and as a result, many lots did not sell in the auction.

Sale No. 70. Geneva. 231 Pages. 3 color coin plates, b&w coin photos throughout. Fine. Subject(s): Spanish, Spanish American Coinage. $50-$75

This auction sale catalog includes numismatic material from Spain and Spanish America as part of the 'High Andes Collection'. Most of these coins have never before been available to the numismatic community, except for the collector himself. Ten pieces have never been recorded. Only 54 pieces out of 800 Potosi issues are holed. This is actually a tremendous record, as most non-salvage coins tend to have been used as jewelry by the local populace. It is the effort of 35 years of collecting and thousands of travelled miles for yet another elusive cob. The cataloging for this collection took a full five months and much research to assemble. This sale catalog will truly be a mechanism for future numismatists to discover the history of the coins they collect. Cataloged by Freeman Craig, Jr.

Mexican Coinage. $35-$40

Included in this issue, is the article titled, 'False Mexican Colonial Gold Bars' by T.V. Buttrey. A very important article in regard to Colonial Mexican numismatic history. Buttrey claimed that he was forced to publish it outside the U.S. after numismatic publishers in this country had been threatened with lawsuits if they published it. In the article, Buttrey examines a number of gold bars claimed to be of genuine colonial Mexican origin, and declares they are all fakes, implicating John J. Ford, Jr. and others in their distribution. a rarely encountered issue.

THE TREASURE EXPERIENCE. Knecht, Robert Lewis. 1990. VHS Format. Running time: 36 minutes. Color. Host: William Carroll. Executive Producer: Robert Lewis Knecht. Playable Fine condition. Subject(s): *Sunken Treasure.

$35-$50

This documentary is about sunken treasure and those that look for it. The treasure hunters interviewed for this documentary are Carl 'Fizz' Fisser, Duke Long, Dwayne and Cindy King, and Goin 'Jack' Haskins. Robert Knecht took months on a limited budget and a borrowed video camera to film the interviews and the underwater footage and a week of editing. The final product is now a nostalgic view of sunken treasure salvage during its later glory days.

Discover a fortune in sunken treasure with QUEST FOR TREASURE. In 1622, the Spanish galleon Nuestra Señora de Atocha sank off the coast of Florida. In her hold, she carried 40 tons of gold and silver and some 70 pounds of emerald contraband. For more than 300 years, men have died trying to find her and her priceless cargo. Join modern day treasure-hunter Mel Fisher who, after a 16-year search, found the riches that so many have sought.

1354 American Numismatic Association, Colorado

Springs. GOLDEN COIN RARITIES FROM THE SEA. Sebring, Tom. 2001. VHS Format. Running time: 36 minutes. Color. Presenter: Tom Sebring. Videographer & Producer: David Lisot, Media Resource Corporation. Playable Fine condition. Subject(s): Sunken Treasure. $35-$50

This presentation was given at the Atlanta ANA Convention and is about rare gold coins recovered from Spanish Galleons, Dutch East India-men, and American paddle wheel steamers. Unlike silver coins that are frequently found in heavily corroded condition, salvaged gold coins are frequently recovered in pristine condition and can be numismatically valuable. In this presentation Tom Sebring covers: Why so many shipwrecks are now being salvaged, Why gold is not affected by sea water, an explanation of the Spanish fleet system in the New World, the story of the Real 8 Company and the 1715 Fleet, the 'King's Fifth' and why it encouraged smuggling, wrecks from the East and various Dutch coins, stories of American, British, and French shipwrecks, the story of the Central America shipwreck and the difficulties with the salvage effort because of governments and insurance companies.

1355 Odyssey Marine Exploration, Tampa. JOURNEY TO THE REPUBLIC. DVD. Odyssey Marine Exploration. 2005. Original plastic DVD, case. An Odyssey Marine Exploration production. DVD Format. Running time: 26 minutes. Color. Playable Fine condition. Subject(s): *Sunken

Treasure. $25-$35

In 1865, just after the end of the Civil War, the SS Republic set sail from New York for New Orleans. Loaded with much-needed supplies and a fortune in gold and silver coins, the side-wheel steamer was caught in a fierce hurricane off the coast of Georgia and sank nearly 1,700 feet to the bottom of the Atlantic. Once thought lost forever, the shipwreck was discovered 138 years later by Odyssey Marine Exploration, a unique deep-ocean exploration company. This DVD presents a short introduction to Odyssey Marine Exploration and the Republic, then journey more than a quarter mile beneath the surface of the Atlantic to the SS Republic shipwreck site. Far below where any scuba diver can explore, fly over the site with ZEUS, Odyssey's 8-ton remotely operated vehicle (ROV). See the amazing deep creatures that inhabit the site and watch as ZEUS delicately recovers shipwreck coins, bottles and amazing artifacts. It's a fascinating glimpse of the treasures of the deep ocean.
